Veteran baseball author Dan Schlossberg, a Fair Lawn resident and Senior Center participant, will share his latest book, Home Run King: the Remarkable Record of Hank Aaron, which has been published to coincide with the 50th anniversary of his breaking Babe Ruth's home run total, the most cherished record in professional sports.

This book, which features a foreword by future Hall of Fame manager Dusty Baker, tells the rags-to-riches story of the scared teenager who left segregated Mobile, AL to play in the old Negro Leagues, integrated the all-white South Atlantic League, and then moved from Milwaukee to Atlanta reluctantly when the Braves relocated their franchise in the turbulent mid-60s. He later braved a torrent of hate mail because he was a black man chasing a time-honored white man's record.

An underrated figure whose greatest achievements came out of the media spotlight, the humble

Aaron was a better player than Willie, Mickey & The Duke -- and possibly the best player of all time.

Join us for an exclusive presentation followed by a Q&A and book raffle. Autographed books will be available for $25 CASH ONLY.
